

Jacob King Joins EHM

Written by Administrator

Monday, 22 February 2010 15:58 - Last Updated Sunday, 04 December 2011 17:31

Jacob King has joined Eric Harry Music! What a scoop! "His versatility and uniqueness in electro and rock and alternative styles is awesome" says Eric. "I love his repertoire...I could listen to his music all day". Jacob was signed to Aztec Records as industrial rock act Dirj He has released several singles and remixes to the underground club scene and opened for several international touring acts such as 30 Seconds to Mars and The Exies. His music also has been licensed to several big-name Hollywood movie studios such as...Fox searchlight, Warner Brothers, Dreamworks, Paramount, MGM, Lionsgate, E! Networks, CNN. Check out his tracks in the "Stockmusic" section of the website.

Jacob is about to release two albums, one with his band "machinekind" and a solo album. "Besides being my amazing yoga instructor, we've become good friends" says Eric.